

Use the EXPLORE maps or the Techbook Interactive Atlas to answer the questions.

	Exploration Questions	Conclusions
Physical	Name three countries that border the Mediterranean Sea. Where is the most mountainous region on this map?	What generalizations can you draw about the physical features of the region?
Political	In which country is Dublin located? What is the northernmost country in Europe? The southernmost?	Why would it be advantageous for a growing civilization to be located near water?
Climate	Which countries do you think have the same climate as the United States? What is the least common climate in the region?	Explain how a Swedish summer may be different from a summer in Vatican City.

Vegetation/ Biome	What is the most common biome in Europe? The least common? What sort of biome or vegetation is found in Germany?	In which countries do you think it is possible to farm year round? Why?
Population Density	What is the population density of Amsterdam, the Netherlands? Which country has the densest overall population?	What do you think explains the low population density of Scandinavia (Norway, Sweden, Finland)?
Economic Activity	What type of land use is most common in Italy? Name three countries that have uranium listed as one of their resources.	Based on this map, what are most likely the main exports of Europe?

Religious & Ethnic Groups	Which region is predominantly Protestant? What about Sunni Muslim? Name three countries that border other countries with different religious beliefs.	Based on the map, what challenges are presented by the locations of major religions in Europe?
---	---	---